

THE brothers of two well known professional footballers will be facing Wycombe Wanderers tomorrow (Good Friday) when Walthamstow Avenue visit Loakes Park (3 p.m.) in the Rothmans Isthmian League Division One.

Alan Droy, brother of Chelsea centre half Mick, plays in defence while Bobby Conn, whose brother Alfie is with Tottenham Hotspur, operates in midfield. Neither Droy nor Conn turned out against Wycombe at Green Pond Lane in October when the Blues triumphed 5-2. With Geoff Anthony scoring twice, Wanderers turned on a great display to clinch their first £40 bonus of the season. Tony Horseman, Mick Holifield and Dylan Evans were the other scorers.

Wanderers will be out to make sure of three points and another Division One double to put more pressure on the other title contenders as they face the last few weeks of the season.
